Local market knowledge:

Location, location, location. We've all heard it before-- because every market is different, you need a Realtor® who knows the local market inside and out.

3

Access to a network of lenders, appraisers and other industry professionals:

Realtors® have worked with dozens of local professionals, from financing to landscaping and everything in between--skip the online searches and tap into your Realtor®'s rolodex.

4

Price guidance:

Pricing is critical--an overpriced home may languish on the market for months, disappointing sellers. On the other hand, no buyer wants to fork over more than a property's worth. Whether you're the seller or the buyer, a Realtor® can advise you on a property's best price.

8

Marketing expertise:

Listing a house is more than just placing a yard sign--a Realtor® can get your property seen by thousands of potential buyers using a variety of online and in-person marketing techniques.

7

Paperwork know-how:

Who has time to sort through pages and pages of confusing paperwork to ensure all the "i's" are dotted and the "t's" are crossed? Your Realtor®, that's who!

6

Support after closing:

Realtors® will be there for you even after the sale--whether you need advice on a plumber or you're not sure what color to paint your new living room.

5

Home staging services:

Because your friends may not tell you the truth about your, um, interesting taste in home decor, a Realtor® will advise you on how to prep your home to appeal to a wide range of buyers.

Navigate legal details including managing attorney reviews, filing required state and federal forms, and knowing contracts inside and out.

Understand financial complexities such as mortgage rates and terms, appraisals and inspections, and coordination with lenders.

Uncover community elements like property taxes, public property information, price trends and neighborhood details.

WHEN YOU DON'T USE A REAL ESTATE AGENT:

You have to do things like...

Make sense of all the legal aspects of buying or selling a home.

Become a financial expert and learn local tax codes & policies.

Coordinate inspections and appraisals without training or knowing the best people.

Learn local negotiating trends and market.

Write your offer to outshine all buyers. As seller, evaluate all details of each offer beyond just price.
